"A New Beginning"

All of us are heading in different directions. We are off into a new world, a world of surprises and disappointments which will surely come. Like the branches of a tree, we will seek the sun where each individual can flower. Many of us will continue our education and go on to college. Some of us will join the Armed Forces and some of us will get married shortly after graduation.

It seems as if only yesterday, we were walking through the doors of high school, to a new beginning. Each of us experienced different feelings; fear, anxiety, and excitement. During those first years two words did not cross our minds: "Young Adults," the generation of tomorrow.

High school life will soon be over, left behind us but stored within our memory. Our years at East Side will be but a chapter in our lives. There will be memories, of regrets, laughter, tears and success. There are not enough words to describe all we have experienced in this limited space, therefore, it is up to each and every one of us to remember our special moments.

"East Side Students"

At East Side High School,
Students can truly be,
Everything including 'cool,'
Even if the future we cannot see.

This school prepares you,
In every way,
If you are true,
You can have a memorable stay.

If you can't see clearly,
Just raise your hand,
And if you still have problems,
Raise your hand again.

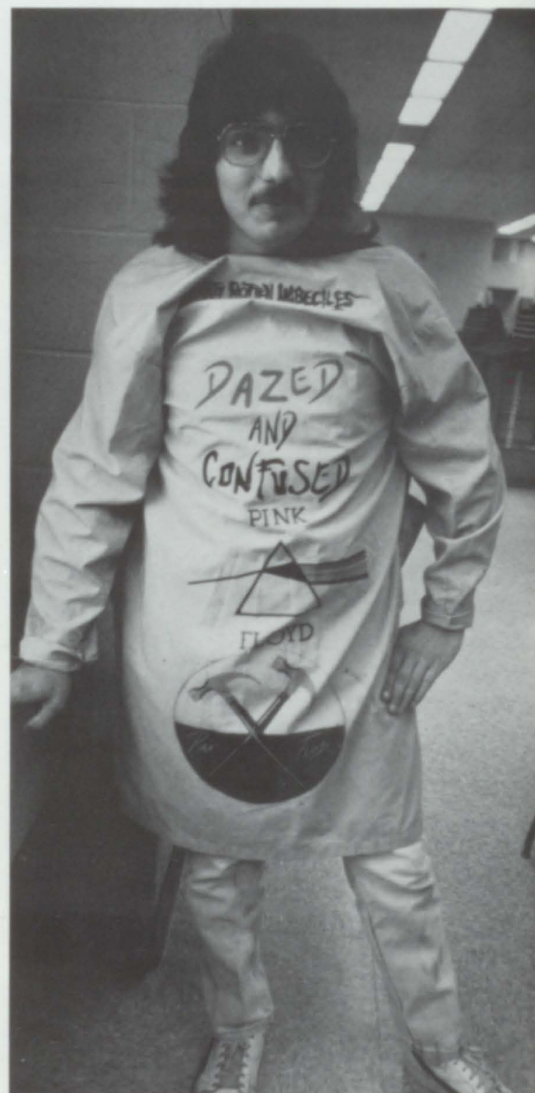

Teachers have helped us through time,
And at East Side we had a start,
We will remember good times in our minds,
And good friends in our hearts.

Top Right: Tell me, oh wise
one. What is the answer?
Bottom Right: Ronnie ...
Dazed and confused.

Center: I'll give you $1.00 if you eat my lunch.
Bottom Center: Peek-a-boo. I see you.
Left: Ha! Real funny.

Right: Which one of us gets to use the toilet first?
Top Center: Kiss me, you fool!
Bottom Center: Stop it! I'm turning red.

Top Left: To read or not to read? That is the question.
Bottom: This is easier than I thought!

"Spring Break 88"

As signs of spring appeared, a few of us spent our free time hanging out and others working. Then there were the lucky ones, those who journeyed to Disney World in Orlando, Florida. Those lucky people, as reported by Selma Bastos, enjoyed a week of frolic and wonder. What they experienced they brought back to share with us. Marilyn Fernandes said, "I really enjoyed different types of food and the warm tropical sun." While Marisol Montesdeoca expressed, "It was a magnificent trip and I would love to go again."

They visited the six different lands at the Magic Kingdom which were 'Fantasy Land,' 'Frontier Land,' 'Adventure Land,' 'Tomorrow Land,' 'Liberty Square' and 'Main Street U.S.A.'. Such attractions as the 'Pirates of the Caribbean,' '20,000 Leagues Under the Sea,' 'Space Mountain' and 'It's a Small World' which included hundreds of singing, international dolls; were not only thrilling but also delightful.

Students explored the two worlds of Epcot Center which were 'Future World' and the 'World Showcase.' In Epcot Center, East Siders enjoyed a trip of communications through time in 'Spaceship Earth' and traveled around the world browsing from country to country.

Many students passed their time within and around Disney World and futuristic trains, also known as 'Monorails' were provided for our transportation between parks. Some spent an evening dining at the Polynesian Village Resort where they experienced a Hawaiian Luau. Others had a splash during the day in 'Wet-n-Wild' which was made up entirely of water-rides.

With all of these places to visit, time went by fast and they found themselves on their way back to school. Before we even realized 'Senior Year' was awaiting us.

"Junior Prom"

'Heaven In Your Eyes' a great name for a great Junior Prom. As everyone entered the Portuguese Pavilion looking absolutely stunning, the room echoed with laughter and excitement.

The room was dimly lit, but enough to see how well our prom committee had worked on all the decorations. The tables were covered in white tablecloths with red and white balloons placed in the middle to give an extra special 'East Side' glow. At each place setting was a glass with 'Heaven In Your Eyes, April. 29, 1988,' etched on it, for this was a special night in our years at East Side High School and we wanted to remember all the wonderful times we have shared as a class.

Mid-Right: Cut it out Manny, you're tickling me.

Top Right: Can I see your cheat notes?
 Mid-Right: Isabel Sanchez and her friend.
 Bottom Right: East Side study habits.
 Top Left: Hmm! Good.

"A Typical Day at East Side"

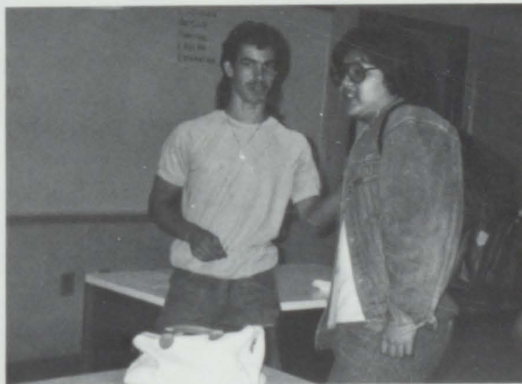

We had a substitute for history today. We didn't do much damage to the room this time. The only problem now is that some people are dazed and confused after they got hit on the head with one of the chairs. Okay, maybe it's impossible to play baseball with chairs, but at least we tried.

Just after we thought we were going to die of boredom, the bell rang. Lunch time. The hardest decision we have to make all day is what we should eat for lunch. Stale bologna sandwiches or the meat watchamacallit. Whatever we chose, we'd play it safe, by paying someone to taste test it for us. If they didn't die, we knew it was edible.

On our way to our next class, we push and shove to get into our classroom, nearly to murder someone who is inside. As we finally make it to gym on time, and dress to play, the fire bell rings. "What's the wind chill factor today? 90 below zero?"

During seventh period, you're studying for the next and final class of an E.S. day and we find ourselves tired, hungry, thirsty, and sleepy. In other words we should be home watching T.V. The test is over and if you're confident you probably passed it with a high D.

The bell rings once again and it's not a fire drill. As we walk out the building, we hear someone calling. And if you turn around it will probably be a teacher with a missed homework assignment. Therefore, do not turn around. Go straight home. Repeat. Go straight home.

Right: Henry is busy right now, can I take a message?

Bottom Right: Fou and Jose, "So how about those Mets?"

Top Right: So many men, so little time.
 Mid-Right: Can't wait to get out.
 Bottom Right: Pass me the squeegee.
 Center: Oh boy, Can you believe this picture.

"Lessons"

They said "we'd never make it,"
 And they thought they were right,
 But we kept on plodding onward,
 Because we hoped we might.
 And they shook their heads in wonder,
 That we lacked the sense to quit,
 But we held our chins up higher,
 And we didn't mind a bit.

They said, "we would never make it,"
 As the problems multiplied,
 But we had to make an effort,
 And to know at least we tried.
 So we dug our heels in deeper,
 Though sometimes our spirits lagged.
 And we shouldered what was lightest,
 And the rest sort of dragged.

And we found to our amazement,
 At the ending of the day.
 That what they said we couldn't,
 We had managed anyway.
 It only took three little words,
 "Please help us," and we rid Ourselves of doubt, and all they said,
 "We'd never do . . . We did."

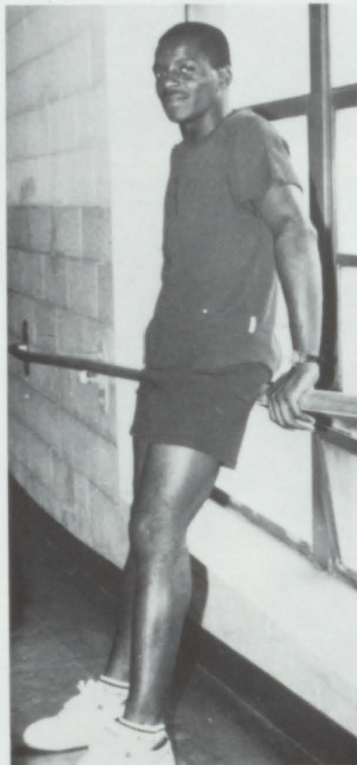

Top Right: "Hey guys what are we doing tonight?" "I think I'm washing my hair."
 Bottom Right: Are we having fun yet?

"Expressions"

East Side has a variety of student types. The lonely, the friendly, the shy, the conservative, the studious and the goldbrick actors. They have all left behind marks in some way or other.

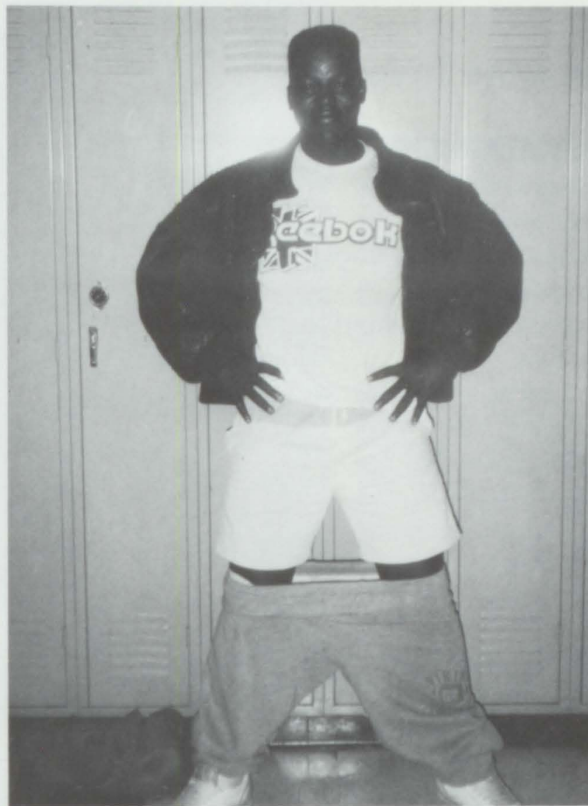

Top Right: Would you like a bite of my sandwich?
Mid-Right: Hey! None of the bathrooms are open.
Bottom Right: WARNING: We are conducting a major scientific experiment.
Center: I'm not tired. I just look it.
Bottom Left: Irma Cardoso . . . actually reading.

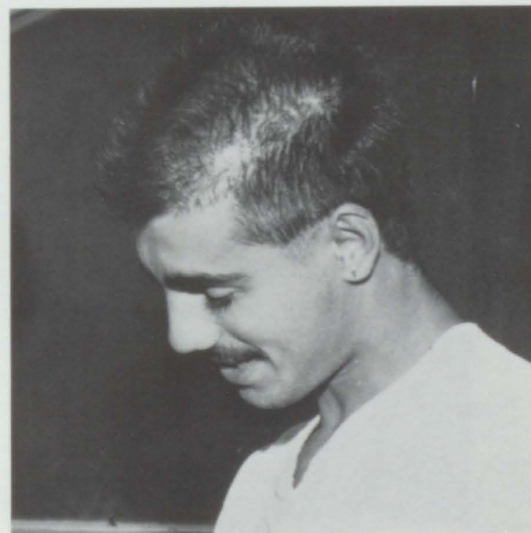

East Siders, have their own special moods shown by facial expressions. Some change, some remain the same and others are in constant state of mobility. Regardless of any circumstances these particular moments are special and will bring back memories of the sad ones, the quiet ones, the lonely ones, the happy ones, and the sometimes wacky ones, along with the discreet and the mysterious ones. Yes, we've got them all.

Top Right: Drop 'em, You're under arrest.
Mid-Right: What does my horoscope say?
Bottom Right: Oh no! Manny's bald spot.

Top Left: I studied for this test I swear I did.
Left: The new wave look.

"The Best Is Yet To Be"

As wonderful as school days are,
So full of fun and laughter.
The best and richest times we know,
Will come a few years later.
So we must close the door behind us,
And as we turn away.
We review the dreams and plans we've made.
And hold them fast today.
Walk proudly as we move along.
Feel young and strong and free.
And let our hearts repeat these words,
"The Best Is Yet To Be."

Top Right: You know what his future profession is.
Mid-Right: What did you say?
Left: Laughing as usual, over the mad lips pad.
Bottom: Hey look! A balancing act.

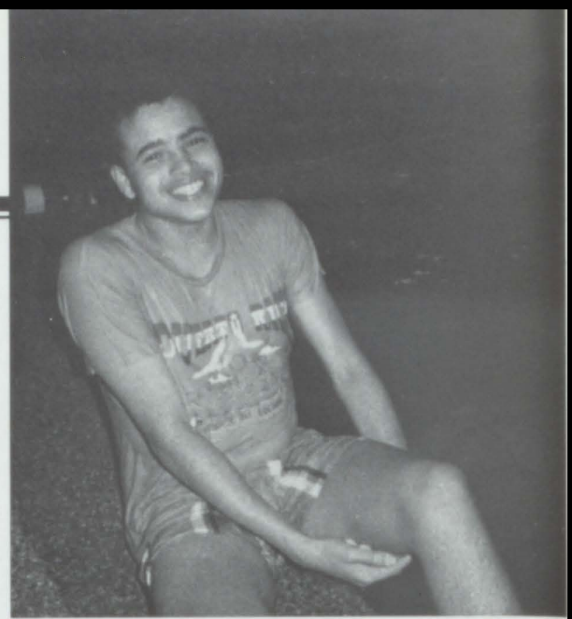

Right: Oh God! One more day of boredom.
Bottom Right: "Did you hear that?"
"What"
Center: Do I look funny or what?

Top Left: Confused teenagers at work.
Mid-Left: Say Corny!

Top Right: Wow! I'm really enjoying myself.
 Mid-Right: Muscles toned
 and untuned!
 Bottom Right: We are all
 Wet-n-Wild.
 Top Left: Whatever this is,
 it sure tastes good!
 Center: I'm just hanging around.

"Poconos"

The annual excursion to the Poconos proved to be another smashing success. Students and chaperons alike let "their hair down," (except for Messers Chill and DiFrancesco) and enjoyed themselves immensely by participating in a variety of activities. Horseback riding, for instance, attracted such a large number of Seniors that waiting time exceeded one full hour. Another popular gathering place, the swimming pool, provided hours of fun and frolic for many. The most exciting time, however, was the disco dance where the glittering lights and rock and roll music drove frenzied dancers to exhaustion.

We shall not quickly forget the Toga party, Mr. Chill's exhortations to have fun whether we wanted to or not, for the quiet, sleepy trip home.

Center: What about James!

Right: A picture says a thousand words.

Bottom Right: I've just been elected to the Roman Senate.

"Seniors"

About to graduate are we,
Looking over the last four years,
And trying not to shed tears.

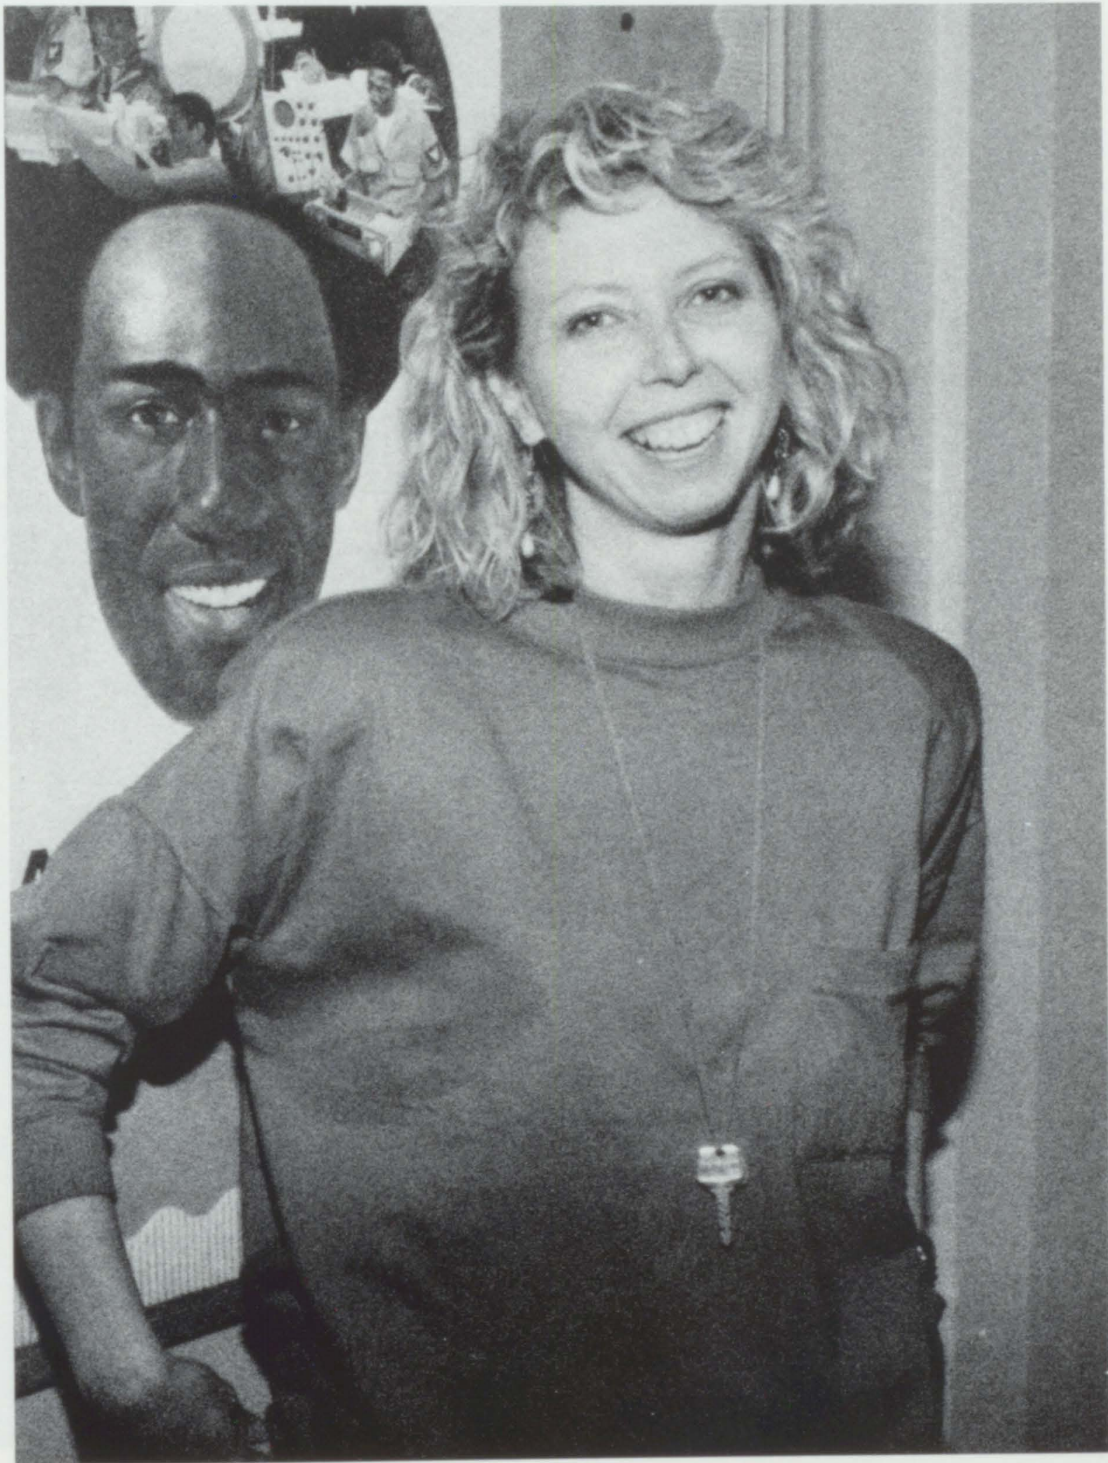

As we face Graduation Day
There is the thought of no more play.

And into the real world we'll go,
What will happen to us we do not know

Faculty

FACULTY/fae kelti/ n. 1. one who seeks answers. 2. an individual who must have patience and the talent of speech to stimulate students to sleep. 3. a person whose peripheral vision is so acute that it has intercepted many test-cheating notes passed behind their back. 4. a honorable individual required to have experience in zoo training, target practice, maintenance, and behavioral psychology. 5. a special teacher who deserves many thanks for accomplishing the impossible task which has led students to high school graduation.

ROSTER OF SUPERIOR MERIT

Francis J. Giantomasi is a lifelong resident of Newark's East Ward. He graduated from Lafayette Street School in 1968 and East Side High School in 1972. After graduating from Saint Peter's College in 1976, he attended Seton Hall Law School. He then served as a judicial law clerk to the Hon. Arthur J. Blake, Assignment Judge, Superior Court of New Jersey. He was admitted to the New Jersey Bar in 1979.

In 1983, Mr. Giantomasi opened his own law firm in the Ironbound Community. He employs three attorneys and several secretaries, who are East Side graduates.

In addition to his law practice, Frank serves the community in many ways. He is an owner of a local cable television station, RTP/USA, and the Portuguese Post newspaper. He is also on the Board of Directors of Ironbound Bank. Mr. Giantomasi has been influential in bringing world class soccer to the city of Newark and is an owner of the Newark's Tigers' soccer team. The Little League team sponsored by Mr. Giantomasi has won a number of local Championships. Last but not least, Frank is active in real estate development in the community and the city. Mr. Giantomasi is very committed to the Ironbound and the Renaissance of Newark.

In Memoriam

"No man is an Island of it self; every man is a peice of the Continent, a part of the maine; if a Cloud be washed away by the Sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a Promontorie were as well as if a Mannor of thy friends or of them owne were a mans death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; If it Tolls For Thee."

John Donne

Each of us at East Side High School has been diminished by the loss of Mr. Robert Krolin and Mr. Sal Zarro, for each man, over the years, has touched our minds and hearts with his own special and unique talents.

Mr. Krolin will always be remembered for his unselfish gift of TIME. He always had time for us. He was never so far away that we could not reach out for him. Whenever we needed him, he was always there for us. He lived to help us realize our full creative potential, and we did just that, over and over again. Each time we rose to new heights, we were inspired to achieve through his example of commitment, dedication, and pursuit of perfection.

Mr. Zarro's kind, caring, gentle, presence made us feel safe, loved, and secure. He was the father figure so many of us needed. We excelled simply because he did, and he expected us to do the same. We looked forward each day to his class, where we were gently, but, so ever firmly encouraged to be the best we could be!

All of us who have been inspired by the unique capabilities of Mr. Krolin and Mr. Zarro will never forget them for the aura of their spirit will be with us forever; however it saddens us to reflect that these hallowed halls will echo nevermore to the physical sound of their laughter and their sage words of advice and love.

— Requiat In Pace —

IN APPRECIATION

There is someone special who devoted much time and work making our Class events fun and successful. Someone who in his twenty-eight years of teaching has been a class advisor for twenty-five of those years. In all of that time he never said he didn't have the time to answer questions. He never neglected his charge as "Dutch Uncle" to his Seniors, making sure that their final year at East Side would be memorable.

Mr. Chill is a teacher as well as a friend. If anyone had a problem, whether it be personal or school related, he is always willing to discuss it. even with all his running around selling trinkets, shirts, plush toys, Florida trips and Poconos trips, he still finds a moment or two to just sit and advise.

His attention and patience will not soon be forgotten. The Class of 1989 expresses its sincere gratitude to the dedication Mr. Leonard Chill gives to East Side High School.

IN RECOGNITION

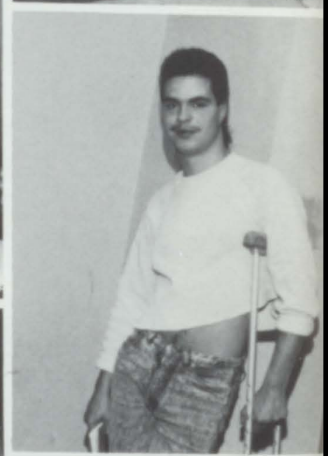

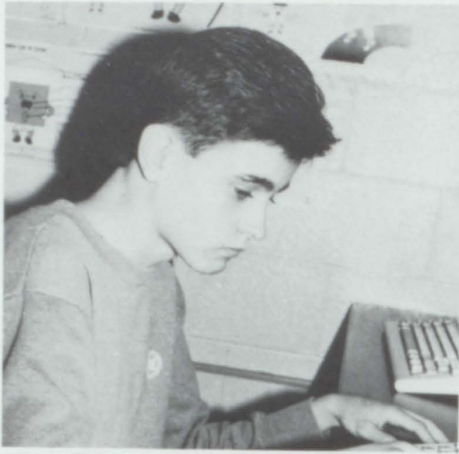

Dr. Raymond Lindgren, a former East side student himself, has been teaching mathematics at East Side for the past fifteen years. He has always directed his energy and effort to encourage all of his students to attain academic excellence. In addition to his classroom duties, Dr. Lindgren has been active with the Parent Teacher's Student Organization and continues to be a strong supporter of the Winterguard, contributing unselfishly of his time and managerial ability to that stellar organization.

Dr. Lindgren has been one of the outstanding positive forces behind East Side students. During times of need he has proven to be dependable and concerned for the individual as well as for the cause of education. Reaching out and helping people are two of his ideals.

Dr. Lindgren can not only be looked upon as an adult to a student but also as a special friend. His sense of humor is also a great sign of his friendliness.

The Class of '89 takes this moment to give Dr. Lindgren the recognition he richly deserves.

Portuguese Club

The purpose of the Portuguese Club is to develop the expert knowledge of the Portuguese language on a conversational level and the awareness through contact with its customs and morals.

Some of the main functions of the Portuguese Club are the magazine, "Os Academicos," edited by the students and the Portuguese Folk Group, where the students perform the many Folkdances from Minho to Algarve and also from Madeira and Acores.

Other activities include visits to different Colleges and Universities, where the Portuguese language is taught. These visits usually take place during the "Carnival" time in February. Also, two trips during Christmas and Easter vacations. The participation of the club members in the parade, during the "Portugal Day" festivities and our Annual Picnic, held in June, which includes present and past members.

The most significant contribution that this club offers to its student body is that throughout the various club fund raisers, substantial scholarships are awarded to those two members who have demonstrated academic excellence throughout their curriculum.

SPORTS/TEAMS

*All teams at East Side High
Are pretty good,
That is not a lie.*

*The teams that play ball,
Practice constantly — outside, inside,
And at other times in the school hall.*

*The team members spend their time
Staying in shape,
And staying in line.*

*Members without dalliance
Put their hearts into the sport,
For each game day,*

*When the challenge is far away,
With lots of school spirit,
They say, "Let's go to play."*

*We like our teams very much,
When they win,
They show off their magic touch.*

*So we must give them all a hand;
They deserve it,
They sure are grand.*

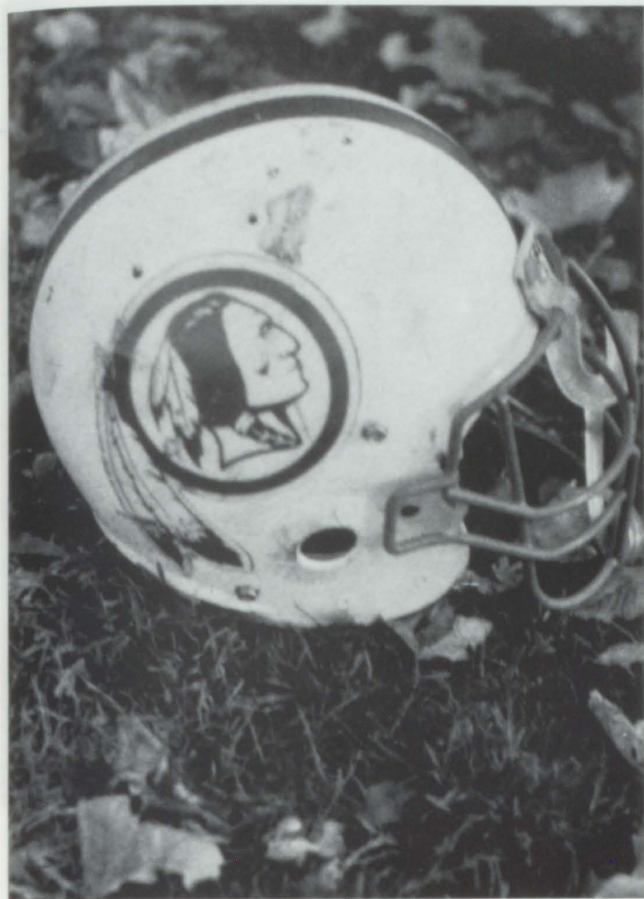

FOOTBALL

After a couple of seasons of trying to build a strong foundation and the right chemistry for the football team, coach Russell took the team to a Co-Championship of the Newark City League with a city record of 4-1. This marked the first city title the East Side Red Raiders clinched since 1974. This accomplishment surprised everybody except the coach and the team. The football players and its coaching staff dedicated their summer to the team by going through long hard summer practices so they could get results like the one they accomplished this season. With outstanding seniors like Andrew Darby, Oscar Correia, Stokley Palmer, Jamal Salaam, Roger Montalvo, Mark Waldron, Rich Borges, and Reggie Johnson the East Side football finished the season with a record of 5-4 and were ranked sixth in the County. The football team went through the season with a saying "East Side Football The Pride Is Back" and as it appears the saying is going to be around for a long time.

TRACK TEAM

The Track tradition continues for the East Side runners. Most athletes find it difficult to excel in both academics and in sports; but our runners have exceeded their abilities in the classroom and in Track throughout the state. When these tremendous athletes joined the team they had one thing in mind and that was to be the best. They have proved that they are among the best in the State numerous times.

Outstanding seniors who have broken many records in their Raiders Run are: Paula Vagueiro, Jamie Zavala, Stockley Palmer, and Jamal Salaam.

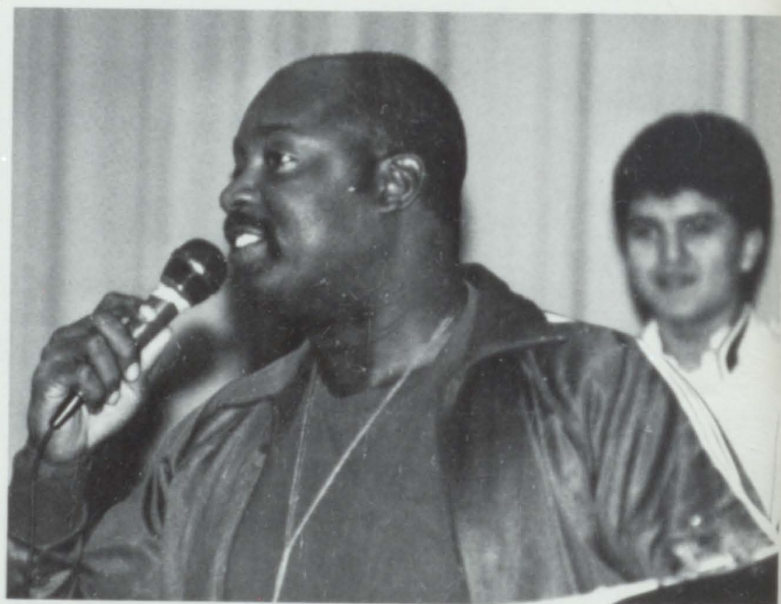

Paula Vagueiro has won twenty-five championships while at East Side. Paula came to East Side from Portugal. She was ranked number one in New Jersey, an exceptional runner placing first in the Eastern States, Spingarn of Washington, D.C. and Felton, Delaware. Paula was selected to All State first team honors in her sophomore year, and junior and senior year.

Jaime Zavala's specialty are the 400 meters to the two miles. Jaime helped East Side win the Newark City Leagues Essex County, NJSIAA No. II Group IV, NJSIAA Group IV, Sprngarn and Felton, Delaware meets. The team was ranked number six in New Jersey in 1989. East Side Track mile relay ranked number three in New Jersey with a 3:25.0 timing.

Stockley Palmer and Jamal Salaam are the field event men. They came to East Side from Vailsburg High School. At East side they participated in the shot put, discus throwing and the javelin.

Both the boys' and the girls' teams canned one victory after another. Every individual has endured much hard work and frustration. Each team member spent many hours of their spare time at practice to achieve such challenging goals and the attainment of countless records. The seniors have won a City Championship, an Essex County Championship and a State Championship every year since 1981 here at the Raider Run.

Other Raider Run members are: JUNIORS — Paul Lamerinhas, Carlos Rivera, Edwin Marfisi, Carla Martins, Teresa Lagido, Eureka Hinds, Hortense Oliveira, Jose Couto, Antonio Lourenco. SOPHOMORES — Pichard Rivera, Dorian Fenner, Shelby Walton, Marquel Thomas, Frank Dunkins, Kenya Jackson, Kaduma Leaf, Emerson Huntbey, Carla Fernandes, Siegrid Ratte, Rui Martins, Luisa Rodrigues. FRESHMEN — Laura Diego, Victor Neno, Alexandra Caracitas, Sonia Rebelo, Lucilia Dias, Angel Gonzalez, Susan Pereira.

Paula Vagueiro has left her mark in East Side's history books in Track and Cross Country competition. During the past three years, she has won the Newark City League Championship every year. Paula has been one of the best known performers in virtually every category of women's middle distance running in the State of New Jersey. She has dominated the cross country indoor and outdoor track circuit from 1986 to and including 1989. She has held the title of most valuable runner, elected to All State first team in 1988 and 1989 in both cross country and track. Among the most important of her accomplishments are taking Lake Forest Delaware Championship 1989; the Spingarn Washington D.C. Championship 1988 and 1989; Newark City League Championship mile and two mile 1987, 1988 and 1989; Essex County Champion in the two mile 1987, 1988, 1989; NJSIAA State Champion two mile 1988 and 1989.

In addition to her active sport life Paula has been a member of the East Side Track Club for the past two years. She has learned to accept responsibilities and the meaning of leadership. Many runners have benefited from the experience. Paula has come to realize the importance of Sportsmanship and competition. With these accomplishments and achievements in her background, Paula will certainly succeed in life.

HOCKEY

East Side's ice hockey team has had a long, gruelling season, winning only two games while losing eleven. The disappointment of an off-season not withstanding, the players showed their true gut as they consistently dug down for that last surge to remain competitive. The team maintained a high level of spirit and determination, always giving a one-hundred percent maximum effort. Under the direction of coaches Tom Wichowski, Phil Selenger, and Pete Wilczak, the boys gave a good account of themselves.

The outstanding players are Jamie Kmetz, the team's leading scorer, and Claudio Ribau, a goalie whose improvement is apparent as each season passes. For the future, the team has a nucleus of high caliber players among the Juniors and Sophomores. Their determination and talent will lead the East Side ice team to new heights.
